Bringing You Up-To-Date...With Data

CultureCount Financial Information Reflects Recent Years

Look for new numbers in CultureCount! With over 30,000 directory entries--nearly 3,000 added since January--there is no better time for artists, creative businesses, and cultural nonprofits to be a part of NEFA's creative economy database.

CultureCount's Financial Information Tool is now updated with:

- New regional arts and culture nonprofits filed with the National Center for Charitable Statistics (NCCS)
- IRS Form 990 Nonprofit Financial Data for the years 2004-2007

CultureCount's Cultural Grants Tool is now updated with the current grants data from:

- New England Foundation for the Arts
- National Endowment for the Arts
- New England state arts agencies

Wait! Why is 2007 the most recent data?

Since taxes were just filed by organizations for all of 2008, the financial information takes some time to be verified by the IRS and digitized by our partners at NCCS. (It should be available next winter.) The CultureCount Team works hard to bring you the most recent complete information!
